GAMBLING GAME SENDS "JEFF" TO FLOOR FOR COUNT

Big Champion in Four Years Disposes of $92,000 - Mellody's Title at Stake-Must Fight Thomas.

Jeff coyly pulled a savings bank book out of his back pooket, carefully opened it, and showed me a balance of $92,000.

And "they say" that Jeff has become something of a gambler. Well $92,000 isn't much to gamble with. A man wants Rockefeller's millions for that game.

EMEMEBER Young Corbett. Young Corbett was a bit of a with him. They got all of Willia's. They got it without much trouble. The werst thing about Wille was that he now and then, and every time he on he became just so much more imsed with his own acuteness.

I remember one week when Corbet n a cold $20,000 at the race track. Did he put it in the bank? Not by a barrel full. Willie was wise. If he could clear wenty thousand in one week, agoord ng to his argument, he ought to clear thout $1,040,000 in a year. But it didn't work that way. Willie was fias broke firer the first day of the next week, and had no borrow a 1100 bill from a cold and foggy it ight and a place to lay his weary head intil the cold gray dawn of the succeeding the cold gray dawn of the succeeding day.

He will soon be thirty years old, and recognishing the fact that an athlete will rapidly lose form after reaching that age, he is preparing to stop fighting before he ectually has to.

"It is strange, but true," said O'Brien, "This frange, but true," said O'Brien, "that in the beginning, when you are really fighting your best, you find it tharder getting $5.00. At the $50 rate it would be easy to stop fighting, but it requires an effort to refuse the $5,000 offers."

O'Brien will remain in Philadelphis until after Baster, and then return to California to fight heavyweight cham.

"I claim the light heavyweight cham."

"Spike" Robson, the clever English boxer, who is matched to fight Abe Aftel, the featherweight champion, for six rounds before the National A. C. of Philadeiphia on April 3, was matched last night for another six-round, encounter before the same club on Saturday night. His opponent in this bout will be "Young Erne," the Quaker City lightweight. Although Erne will have some weight on Robson the Englishman expects to outpoint him easily. # iside of Keeler and Elberfeld. Brockett can also be used as utility infielder. Griffith has received definite information that Rickey, the former St. Louis catcher, will report for duty within ten days. He is coaching a college team in Ohlo, and as he is getting in shape there Griffith really sees no necessity in him here for a week or more. Thomas will be taken to Athens to catch the game this siternoon, and Castleton, Griffith and Brockett will be used as pitchers. Castleton has developed since he joined the club, and Griff thinks so inuch of him that he is going to see him work out strong this afternoon. If Castleton can be turned into a real good southpaw, Griffith feels that his spring, work has not gone for naught. This Marine has a very long reach, and swings with a decided overhand swings ling notion that gives the ball great

In the early part of the game Deviin doubled and Corcoran got a fine triple by a fast drive to left field. Giants, 5: 5t. Vincent, 1.

To-day the last game with the Loss Angeles team will be played here, and then off for Ban Francisco, where the two games will be played on Baturday and Sunday at the big new ball park.

This stay in Los Angeles has done wonders for the whole team.

During next week it is intended, if possible, to play in Sants Barbara, Fresno, Bakersfield and San Jose.
